

Islesboro Central School has the following vacancy

Health Aide

Minimum Qualifications:

High school diploma.

Able and willing to maintain confidentiality of health information.

Recommended Qualifications:

Current certification in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and first aid. Experience/training in a school or health setting.

Reports To:

School Nurse and Head of Schools

Duties and Responsibilities:

- With appropriate training and certification, the health aide will:
 - Administer first aid when necessary.
 - Assist with medication administration.
- Follow school procedures for care and reporting of injuries and illness. Consult with the school nurse and/or Health Center regarding unusual or acute problems.
- Manage a supply of personal protective equipment (PPE).
- Assist with the tracking and reporting of attendance.
- Maintain student health and immunization records.
- Assist with vision and hearing screenings.
- Support students and staff with hand hygiene education.

If interested, please email Chuck Hamm at chamm@icspathways.org
August 13, 2020