

STUDENT SCHEDULES AND COURSE LOADS

Beginning with the Fall semester of 1998, each student enrolled in the high school of Islesboro Central School will be required to carry a six credit course load. Of those six credits, five must represent full credit courses.

Students in high school may add and drop courses any time before the end of the 10th scheduled school day of a semester. At no time may a student's course load drop below the minimum required to be carried.
